Can I add a "default" to this if statement? This is probably super easy but I'm kinda new and I'm not entirely sure what I should be searching for to find the answer. I have a main.php that starts like this: if(empty($_GET['id'])){ and then in the page I call it like this: Is there any way I can edit the main.php file so that it will automatically have the $_GET['id'] of 1 in the above if statement if $_GET['id'] is not defined? A: You could use: $id = $_GET['id']?? 1; Or you could set that as a default in the include statement. For example: Recurrent local recurrence of prostate cancer following radical prostatectomy. Two cases of recurrent prostate cancer following
